FULL DAY TOUR - SIGNATURE BAROSSA VALLEY PRIVATE TOUR

Tour Overview

An hour from Adelaide, the Barossa Valley is a haven of fine wine and food. Explore acclaimed wineries like Hentley Farm, Alkina, and Torbreck with exclusive access, enjoy a regionally inspired lunch, and take in sweeping views of this world-renowned wine country, all with your private guide.

Tour Highlights

Hentley Farm

Begin your day with a personalised exploration of Hentley Farm, uncovering the story, history, and vision behind their award winning Barossan wines. Stroll through the single estate vineyard, beautifully positioned along the Seppeltsfield Road wine corridor, while tasting current and back vintages of two iconic Shiraz expressions, The Beauty and The Beast. Exclusive to The Tailor Touring, this immersive experience offers a rare glimpse into the craft and character that define Hentley Farm.

Alkina Estate

Continue your private tour at Alkina Wines, an extraordinary estate grounded in regenerative farming and terroir driven winegrowing, where 70 year old vines surround a lovingly restored 170 year old stone building. Settle in for a regionally inspired, share style lunch featuring seasonal dishes sourced from Alkina's organic kitchen garden. Afterwards, enjoy a guided tasting of rare micro terroir wines from the acclaimed Polygon Project, revealing the depth and character of the land in every glass.

Torbreck Vintners

Next, be led through Torbreck Vintners behind the scenes operations, including a visit to the barrel hall with tastings along the way. Then settle into the 1800s heritage tasting room for a private, tutored tasting of their signature, internationally acclaimed red varietals.
